

Consultant

Thomas Orths

Thomas Orths is an expert in Leadership Effectiveness, Holistic Change and Emotional Intelligence. As a high performance coach, trainer and speaker, he enables individuals, teams and organizations to grow. His ability to initiate Mindset Change is in demand to create High Performing Teams in the competitive business arena.

With the experience of Thomas, growth becomes possible by using successful strategies that enable you to increase sales, to optimize productivity, improve customer service and work more efficiently. His core competencies include leadership & management effectiveness, holistic change, emotional intelligence & mindset change and high performing individuals & teams.

Thomas has previous industry experience in Aerospace, Chemicals, Communications, Creative Industries, Electronics, Financial Services, Food and Drink, IT, Manufacturing, Pharmaceuticals & Biotechnology and Finance.

His qualifications include accreditation for DISC behaviour related assessment tools focusing on leadership & team development and assessment instruments of emotional intelligence on the individual, team and organizational level through JCA, Cheltenham UK. (John Cooper & Associates)

Thomas has worked with many international clients. Some of these are Bayer, British Airways, Gen Re Reinsurance, Goodyear Dunlop Europe, Hilton Hotels, Hitachi, Holiday Inn Hotels, Janssen Cilag, Johnson & Johnson, McDonald's and many more.

